"THIS IS GOING TO BE THE WORST PARTY EVER" bellowed my little brother. "Don't worry Joe, I'm thinking my hardest for a 'Back to the future' themed prop for your party." I explained 10 hours before the night of the party. "Hi Guys! Hi Joe". Guess what I'm having a time machine at my party. See you guys there." I remembered something "yes Joe" I promised all my friends there would be a time Machine."

YESSSS! Remember the Massive fridge Mum and dad bought? We can use the cardboard box to make the time machine. "Awesome".

Joe and I Spent the night Making the time machine.

for your party." 5 hours later... All my friends are here yay. Ok Joe's friends you stay and me and Will show you how to work the Time Machine. First close the door, second get ready, finally push the red button and AAAAAHHH!!!
"Wait! I think we actually went back in time. Oh no why am I hearing roaring? Is that your belly of a DINOSAUR!" Shoot that red button sure works am I right. The dinosaur came running towards us. "Joe press the red button." I screamed. "I am?
you know I'm terrified of dinosaurs."
The dinosaur was two seconds away from eating me and Joe.
