FARM TO TABLE

Once a girl called Naomi heard the sad news that her parents were having a hard time running their restaurant called Casa de Moissant as food was getting too expensive and they did not know how to run the restaurant like that, Naomi thought that instead of growing flowers in her garden why not vegetables? She started encouraging her parents to use the food from the garden she made. It helped them save money and encouraged other people to do the same thing. So, the community and the restaurant saved a lot of money. The end.
