

Writing competition

With a sprinkle of inspiration, little ideas can grow into big ideas.

READ
GROW
Inspire

Write a short story about your best idea ever.

Puppy powers

Once there was a little puppy called Monty and he was a dachshound. But he wasn't just any old dachshound, he has puppy powers. This story is about a puppy developing its powers as it grows. When Monty was just a little puppy, he learned that he was a power puppy. Just now he only had one power and it was invisibility he was so excited <sup>that</sup> he could turn invisible. Soon the puppy was seven months old and it had gotten ten more and they are fire breath, freeze breath, flying, turning into other animals, talking to other animals and human, controlling nature, being able to breath under water, teleportation, playing spirit, healing powers and making friends with every animal. When Monty is all grown up he will have all the powers in the world. But one day when Monty went out to play he heard a baby bunny crying, he went over to where the bunny crying. Monty waited and waited but no one came so Monty took the bunny home and named it fluffy. When fluffy was a year old she realized that fluffy had powers too just like Monty. When fluffy and Monty were the same age they became best animal friends and spent every second of there life together. The End ♥

aka Monty is My dogs name and he is a dachshound. ♥