HOW TO CLEAN YOUR ROOM IN 20secs flat

"Clean your room" my mum bellowed. That's when it hit me, what if I didn't have to. What if I could clean my room so quickly it felt like I ~~never~~ never cleaned my room. That's how operation 20 seconds (020s) started.

this is how 020s went

My stuff was in a ~~heap~~ heap I was ready and the clock started. 20secs I grabbed my cloths and lunched across the room. As I stuffed my stuff in the door I opened up the book shelf. I then bolted around the room ~~snatching~~ snatching up books. then I frizbeed them across the room and as they slotted in the shelves I spared a glance at the clock and gasped 12secs left I sprinted around the room stuffing toys into shelves (it was 5) 5secs left I ~~ran~~ ran to my bed 4secs left I fluffed my pillow 3secs left I put on my sheet 2secs left I put on the dona 1sec and I smiled.
