Dear Diary I have 1 more long day until I have to go to scary high school and I have no friends. So I have to find a way to make one. A list! My 3rd favourite thing after Maxley my dog and chocolate. A 5 stepped list which is easy to follow. Now I have to think what I have in it? What am I good at? Oh yes I know. Step 1. Start a conversation ask a question but don't go crazy on them. Step 2. compliment them they might like it or think your a freak. Step 3. ask to borrow something like a pencil or rubber. Step 4. try to sit near them at lunch and Step 5. only if you close with them invite them to your house well tomorrow we will see if it works.
