Reading is magic and can transport you to amazing and curious places.

the land of toadstalls

Write a short story about a wonderful and magical place.

"Sunny" called Sunny's mum "time for breakfast!"

Sunny is a 10 year old girl.

She lives with her mom and her little brother in a small house. One day while Sunny and her brother were climbing on a tree Sunny heard a noise...

a voice whispering her name like soft clouds in the sky.

She followed it. The voice led her to a small hole in her garden.

She gasped! Next to that peculiar hole was a tiara!

She thought to herself "should I try it on or not?"

She was too mesmerised she placed the tiara on her head and...

POOF! She turned small. She screamed! As she fell into the hole. The weirdest thing that happened to her eyes she was in a land of toadstalls! "how will I get out?" she thought?

Luckily there was a ladder leading to the top.

Sunny climbed and then...

She turned big again! Exactly when she reached the top! Sunny turned on her brother to tell him what had happened.
