Reading is magic and can transport you to amazing and curious places.

Write a short story about a wonderful and magical place.

THUD, Thud, Thud! the sound of Isla's ^{Bella's little sister} footsteps going down the stairs, 'ISIA!' cried Bella "please keep it down I am trying to read", Bella closed the door. Now all Bella could hear was the sound of the warm crackling fire and her guinea pig purring Shhh... Lana and Locky (Brother and Sister guinea pigs). Bella got out of bed and searched for a book. She scatered around the room "Bingo!" a perfect book, it had a hard leather cover with a smooth gold texture and a rose gold pattern. She carefully slid her fingers on all corners of the book as soon as she opened it, BRIGHT yellow lights appered.... all of a sudden it looked like she was in a wormhole MUM! Bella yelled "Help! I am falling in to the Book!" "Err where am i?" Bella was Dizzy and tired she found her self lying on a hard and rocky floor ahhhhhh!

a wolf! umm and little red riding hood
"yeah! that me!" The little girl said in a soft and sweet voice "welcome to fairytale land" exclaimed the wolf, then another deep voice appered would you like some porridge said a bear Oh my goodness! no thank you! hahaha Shall we go for a stroll?
umm... go know I better get going said bella ok said said the bear and snaped his fingers wow! Now bella is in bed safe and sound!
