

Writing competition

Reading is magic and can transport you to amazing and curious places.

Panther and Bird

Write a short story about a wonderful and magical place.

Dew drops glistened in the morning light.

A black panther raced through the forest sprinting past its prey. The panther ran to a little cave and curled up next to her Mum. The mum fed the baby panther.

The sunset went down, then the moon glistened in the starlight. The next day the panther was racing in the forest and saw a bird. It tweeted a mel-oncoly song. The panther felt bad so it invited the bird to play with it. The bird beat the panther in every race. It darted through the tree tops. It rested in trees.

It even led the panther in ~~the~~ a magical portal. ~~There~~ They had fun racing there.

Every day they met up to play and the day there was a magical portal, they went in. It was Tree Land and they played with the bird's friends until it was time to go.

The panther raced down, into the little cave, snuggled with her Mum and dreamt for the next day to play.