

Writing competition

Reading is magic and can transport you to amazing and curious places.

Write a short story about a wonderful and magical place.

My magical Place is the library. The library has a lot of magical book and chapter Books, we also have the school library that has books too.

What makes this Place magical?

This place is magical because they have ~~many~~ ^{many} Books. and also they have celebrations like the Bower Bird the Bower Bird was celebrated a few weeks ago.
