

Writing competition

Reading is magic and can transport you to amazing and curious places.

Mysterious Quest

Write a short story about a wonderful and magical place.

"Be careful," I whispered to Ben as he excitedly opened the crusty, musty door. A beam of light busted through the doorway as shiny a reflection. A wizard came out of the door and dropped a mysterious map. He also dropped an orange crayon.

All of a sudden they walked through the fabulous refreshing forest to have a stroll, although it was raining Ben still had to go. After a while calm Carina Christian saw a pile of rose peddles and a red crayon.

My heart was pounding and my palms were sweaty as I jumped for joy. "Time to get the next crayon." Ben happily said. As fast as a cheata to the depth of the sea they found a blue crayon and a hungry whale. "Can we feed the poor hungry whale?" question Ben. "Yes, you can give some to the whale while I can get the blue crayon," said Christian.

At that moment Ben was so joyful he had ever been. As quick as a flash Ben and Christian took a dragon fly to Greenland so they can get the green crayon to make a crayon rainbow. After a while Ben found the green crayon.

All of the sudden Christian found a magical castle on the ice. Ben wanted to go to the (spooky) creepy castle so they went in. As soon as they went in one by one the guards were losing. When menace Christian was fighting the guards Ben was defeating the dragon with an enchanted bow arrow. "Christian I need help fighting the dragon." said Ben. So Christian helped Ben.

After all the fighting Christian and Ben had a humongous party at Greenland. When the crayons making a beautiful rainbow.