

Reading Is Magic

Hi I'm Chloe and I don't like reading... or at least I didn't. Here's what happened, it was a typical Saturday morning with me in my bed desperately trying to stay awake. But I was bored! I looked around for something to do, there I spied my book I reached out to grab it and... I couldn't I hated reading! But I was so bored, so I secured the book in my arms and started reading. I couldn't believe that I, Chloe, was reading a book! As I started reading I felt the cool breeze, I was there. I was dancing with the waves of the sea, I was feeling the chilly water and exploring the deep...dark...ocean. Every page I turned was more of an amazing adventure. As I dove deeper into the book the more magical it felt. The water was shimmering more than ever. I saw amazing creatures that I'd never seen before. Some of my favorites were the vampire squid and the butterfly fish. They were so unique I swam and gilded and divided with them. I loved it! When I got to the end I needed to read more! Reading is magic every page, every book is a new adventure!
