

Writing competition

Reading is magic and can transport you to amazing and curious places.

Write a short story about a wonderful and magical place.

Hi my name is Matthew and I am going to tell you about the time I went to Cheeseland. Grumble, grumble one day I had a powerful urge to eat some cheese so I went to the shops. And guess what? All the cheese was off the market! The blue cheese the stinky cheese everything! Since I was in a tight spot I decided to go to a place called Cheeseland.

Cheeseland is a place that sells cheese for free. The only problem is that it is very, very far away and it has dangerous magical creatures. I started packing right away. The next day I set out. I was riding my horse in the sweating hot sun and then I accidentally stepped on a stone that was actually a two-headed cheese ripper's home. Feeling afraid it came out and bit me on the arm. I smelt of cheese afterwards.

Writing competition

Reading is magic and can transport you to amazing and curious places.

Write a short story about a wonderful and magical place.

I got attacked by a magical creature which means I am nearing the borders of Cheeseland.

After making my tent I had a good night's rest. Today I came to Cheese town which is next to the heart of Cheeseland. In a few hours time my horse stepped on a peice of blue cheese that was actually a cheese dragons tail. The dragon being aroused from its nap roared and frightened my horse away. After this I finally reached the cheese trading center.

The cheese trading center is where you get cheese! At morning I restocked with cheese and went home. When I was a hour away from my home I noticed that the creatures from Cheeseland had

Writing competition

Reading is magic and can transport you to amazing and curious places.

Write a short story about a wonderful and magical place.

followed me for a party! The party was a good one that left me with lots of cheese in my stomach.