

Writing competition

Reading is magic and can transport you to amazing and curious places.

Write a short story about a wonderful and magical place.

The Enchanting Library

In a small town, a library nestled amongst tall, curved trees. A curious young girl named Jenna found herself glued to the enchanting books.

The library had magnificent towering shelves filled with joy. As Jenna continued exploring what seemed ordinary was mostly extraordinary! For Jenna, the library was a wonderful and magical place where turning each page of a book would lead to a new adventure.

Jenna discovered a secret, ancient bookshelf tilted against ~~a shelf~~ ^{the wall}. With all her strength and power Jenna was able to move the bookshelf. As she moved it there was a revealed secret opening filled with debris and cobwebs.

She brushed the cobwebs from her side, revealing the most delightful books you could imagine and beyond!

From that day on it was like when she entered the library a spark of magic would hit her heart.

Jenna felt a true sense of pride, wonder and amazement!
